

Happy Thanksgiving Everyone!

The year is flying by quickly. Here a couple things to put on the calendar.

~DECEMBER 1st Pajama party. If your child would like they can wear their PJ's to school.

~ DECEMBER 8th all preschool students will be participating in the Elementary Christmas program. I will let you know more information as it becomes available.

There are pictures of some of our adventures on the Callaway Public school website. You can also find another copy of the classroom calendar and notes sent home.

Enjoy your Thanksgiving and we will see you on Monday.
